To Arms! To Arm!! "High sourds our bugts call; Combined by bonor's sacred tie, Our word is LAW and I IMENTY!

March forward, one and a'l Freemen of Ohio! One more battle is to be fought and the victory will be on the side of the friends of Truth, Justice and of Hull placed a blot upon our escutcheon which was greatly regretted by every Patriot and almost entirely destroyed the hopes of the country. But the men at the head of affairs were determined to wipe away the disgrace, and for this purpose re-organized the army and put new men at its head.

Under the lead of Scott, several skirmishes ensued, and the bravery displayed at Queenstown Heights and the Lattle and capture of Fort George, inspired new hopes in the American bosom. THIS WAS ONLY THE BEGINNING OF THE END.

In 1814, Scott was promoted by President Madison to the office of Brigadier General, and under his supervision, a new army was organized upon our Ningara frontier. He introduced at once a rew system of military tactics; the new recruits were immediately put under efficient drill. Scott labored for months, until the army was thoroughly trained and fitted for all the hardships of a rigorous campaign. With his youthful hopes and patriotic ambition, he moved not until he was perfectly well satisfied that we had one army which could cope with the veteran troops of Great Britain.

The result was most glorious. His troops Fort Erie was taken; the battle of Chippewa followed; the enemy retreated and the Amerleans sursued;until at last the glorious fight at Lundy's Lane showed conclusively that the gallant Americans were cuperior in every respect to their adversaries. and prepared for the contest. See to it that dred and seventy-five dollars of individual Norfolk Herald says: the BRITISH infantry poured their deadly fire which is secured by individual bonds; they into the American ranks, but all to no purpose. They were at length compelled to retire and abandon the field.

The great contest is almost upon us. In two weeks time, we will be called upon, as freemen, to decide whether Gen. Scott's eminent services and devoted patriotism entide him to our suffrages, or whether we will have that line. such a man as Frank Pierce to rule over the destinies of this great Republic! THE ELECTIONS - Ohio and Pennsylvania. Jour -Since the election in these two States, the Locofocos have been playing the brag game to excess. They figure up majorities and boast of 20,000 in Ohio and 12,000 in Pennsylvania, when they won't get the half in either State. The Statesman publishlations and then runs up its majority by stating that"the Whig strong-holds are all in." So they are, but they are just the placthan half, and so far as Pennaylvania is concerned, she is safe for Scott beyond a doubt. So is Ohio, if Locofocoism cannot coax doubting Whigs to stay at home. OHIO WILL GIVE SCOTT 10,000 MAJORI-TY. We have no additional returns since Saturday, and have heard of nothing to in- no longer able to support a party which is duce us to alter our figures published in Saturday's paper. The brag game wont win when Scott, is in the field. The people will vote for him. Santa Anna tried that game, but Scott's soldiers would fight for him.
